OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS
STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of:

PARENT ON BEHALF OF STUDENT,

v.

LONG BEACH UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT.

OAH CASE NO. 2014100478

ORDER OF DETERMINATION OF
SUFFICIENCY OF DUE PROCESS COMPLAINT

On October 9, 2014, Parent on behalf of Student filed a due process hearing request¹ (complaint) naming Long Beach Unified School District.

On October 14, 2014, District timely filed a notice of insufficiency as to Student's complaint.

APPLICABLE LAW

The named parties to a due process hearing request have the right to challenge the sufficiency of the complaint.² The party filing the complaint is not entitled to a hearing unless the complaint meets the requirements of Title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A).

A complaint is sufficient if it contains: (1) a description of the nature of the problem of the child relating to the proposed initiation or change concerning the identification, evaluation, or educational placement of the child, or the provision of a free appropriate public education (FAPE) to the child; (2) facts relating to the problem; and (3) a proposed resolution of the problem to the extent known and available to the party at the time.³ These requirements prevent vague and confusing complaints, and promote fairness by providing the named parties with sufficient information to know how to prepare for the hearing and how to participate in resolution sessions and mediation.⁴

¹ A request for a due process hearing under Education Code section 56502 is the due process complaint notice required under Title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A).

² 20 U.S.C. § 1415(b) & (c).

³ 20 U.S.C. § 1415(b)(7)(A)(ii)(III) & (IV).

The complaint provides enough information when it provides “an awareness and understanding of the issues forming the basis of the complaint.”⁵ The pleading requirements should be liberally construed in light of the broad remedial purposes of the IDEA and the relative informality of the due process hearings it authorizes.⁶ Whether the complaint is sufficient is a matter within the sound discretion of the Administrative Law Judge.⁷

DISCUSSION

Student’s complaint alleges that he was placed in an inappropriate program for students with severe autism last school year, and that District offered him a change of placement to a mild/moderate autism program at another school and services including a one-on-one aide, speech therapy, behavior support and transportation in his April 9, 2014 individualized education program. According to Student, District failed to implement the change in placement for two weeks, and after Student’s arrival in the new school, he failed to receive the services called for in his IEP. Student requests that his aide be made full time, and compensatory education for missed services and an inappropriate program. Although the allegations are very broad, the facts alleged in Student’s complaint are nonetheless sufficient to put the District on notice of the issues forming the basis of the complaint. Student’s complaint identifies the issues, adequate related facts about the problem, and a proposed resolution to permit District to respond to the complaint and participate in a resolution session and mediation.

Therefore, Student’s statement of his claim is sufficient.
